Carnival Today!!!! (afternoon)

As I write this article the weather prediction is for rain during the carnival. Please be assured that the carnival will happen rain or shine. We will have a slip and slide and water balloons in the rain for the brave of heart. Maybe we will even have egg toss in the rain for those who are willing---it's an easy clean up.

There will be a lot of other activities which include:

- A ping pong tournament
- The children's talent show--always a must see
- Face painting
- Glitter toes--always beautiful
- Three-legged race
- Wheel barrow race
- Other races people suggest
- The making of wood sculptures, god's eyes, paper bag puppets and other various arts and crafts
- Snow cones of various flavors
- Ice cream sundaes
- Lots of fun and good conversation
- The UUMAC scavenger hunt

I am still looking for volunteers so please let Julie Watson know if you can help.

Picnic Dinner outside McShea (or inside if it's raining).

Registrar Retiring

Dear UUMACers,

After 5 wonderful years as your registrar, it is time for me to pass the registrar torch to someone new. I have loved my job. I have gotten to know just about everyone at UUMAC through the registrar's job which is great for someone who is basically shy. Although I wouldn't mind being registrar for life, my body tells me it is not possible to continue with the physical aspects of the job.

Several persons have expressed interest in taking over and I am very appreciative. This job requires someone who is detail oriented and good with computers and databases. The person who takes the job will have to work with the brochure editor to design the registration form, assist with mailings by providing mailing lists and/or labels, maintain the mailing list and historical files, organize registrations and registration day, and most importantly take care of the button machine.

I look forward to working with Jo Paoletti and the new registrar next year as an assistant rather than the leader. Although my role at UUMAC will change, my love for UUMAC and UUMACers will remain strong.

Entertainment for all ages

...was had by all who attended UUMAC's 1st Annual Interactive Sing-Along "The Wizard of Oz". Maya Salvacion as Dorothy admirably tackled all foes large and small. The rest of the cast was Chris Buja as Tin Man, Jim Crocetto as Scarecrow, Ira Lerner as Cowardly Lion, Zakiya Jacob as Glinda the Good Witch, Carla Miller as the Wicked Witch of the West,

Eva Miller as the Evil Monkey, Ben Lighter as the Wizard, Toto as "himself", the Lollipop Guild triplets, Jo Paoletti, Carol Harkrader-Pine, and Tara Stephenson, and Kathy Clay as the Horse's Ass.

The original movie will never be the same for all who attended!

Thank-you to Andrea Lerner and all her helpers who conceived the concept and put together the amazing costumes and goody bags of props!

This will be a tough one to top.

UUs go to church because some questions just can't be answered by Google.
